

THE POSITIVE BUSINESS

CONVERSATIONS WORTH HAVING BOOTCAMP

Improve how your team communicates with one another everyday!

Better results begin with better conversations.

What to Expect

OUTCOMES

Awareness, tools and practices to enhance your team's desire to collaborate and connect while becoming more committed to their work.

FORMAT

Remote or on-site facilitation for groups of 5 - 50, includes the Conversations Worth Having workbook, book, and study guide for on-going practice.

PARTNERSHIP

Kelly Stewart, founder, The Positive Business, teaches a proven framework to help your team discover the potential of positive, strategic conversations.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand the nature of conversations, how conversations affect human "being" and "doing" and enhance the ability to choose to have a Conversation Worth Having.
- Understand the basics of Appreciative Inquiry and improve the ability to ask generative questions that foster effective communication.
- Discover and apply a three-step process for fueling productive and meaningful engagement around workplace challenges.
- Develop the skill and motivation to seek, receive and provide feedback in even the most critical of situations.
